

To facilitate achievement of the requirements described, Roads of Success recognizes a responsibility to participate in future events held for the Boldline Religious Freedom Accelerator program.

This Statement of Commitment affirms that Roads of Success will participate in the full three-day accelerator program in or around Washington, D.C. taking place in October 2018. This Statement of Commitment also applies should, for any reason, the three-day accelerator program be moved to another date.

Signature: Jvette Isaac, President Date: 8-22-18